•
Alex is a classically trained pianist and composer, with a Bachelor's degree in Piano and Composition from the "C. Porumbescu" music conservatory in Bucharest, Romania (in 1982), and a Masters degree in Music Composition from University of Redlands, California (in 2008)

Born in Bucharest, Romania, he began playing piano at age 7. While a student at the Conservatory, he started tutoring and giving piano lessons. Besides his formal classical training, Alex also began to be interested in Jazz and poplar music.

In 1986 he relocated to Sweden and toured Europe with such groups as the Platters. He later taught piano and music at the Falkoping's Music School.

Alex moved to California in 1998 and set up a Music and Video studio, working on projects for Christian Chalifour, The Coyotes, Randy Riggs, Robert Kunkel, Dewey Terry (music), Champion Bearing, Coachella Valley Symphony Orchestra and Desert Adventures (video), to name just a few. He continued working as a piano and music teacher, as well as freelance pianist throughout the Coachella Valley.

Alex is a member of the Music Teachers of the Desert (MTOD), local chapter for Music Teachers National Association (MTNA), since 2005

"My goal as a teacher is to combine practice and theory, to develop the music sensitivity of the students, and provide them with knowledge and tools to be able to better understand the nature and mechanics of this beautiful thing."
