

D. LeDesma & Alex Danson

Sax-y Music for All Occassions

D. LeDesma started playing saxophone and recording music at the age of 17, while still in High School.

He traveled and performed extensively at Jazz Venues, Music Festivals and Clinics on the West Coast, playing with a variety of renowned artists, like David Benoit, Harry "Sweet" Edison, Willie Bobo, Alfonse Mouzon, Gabor Szabo and many others.

Alex Danson is a classically trained pianist with a bachelor's degree in music composition.

His experience includes music and piano instruction, associated for ten years with Falkoping's Music School in Sweden, several European tours playing with The Platters, performing throughout the Palm Springs area at conventions, hotels and private parties

Our Repertoire consists of a vast selection of jazz, show tunes, pop and standards, as well as classical music.

(760) 880-0641